subsidiaries; (b) the sale or transfer of de minimis assets; and (c) taking corporate action in connection therewith.

Adequate time and proper notice must be given to all interested parties and any order must be clear that it does not alter any provisions of existing contracts or leases entered into by affiliated non-debtor entities including any applicable consent to sale or assignment provisions. The current proposed order fails to provide these basic protections. This would include notice to entities, such as Scanio, that have leased real property to affiliated non-debtor entities where projects are currently under construction.
